4. NOTABLE FEATURES, HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE AND DESCRIPTION  This is a very attractive and well-proportioned house of the late Federal period. It is built in the style of earlier structures in the county and the high narrow windows give it a very ancient appearance. The main house is five bays long and one room deep. There are two hooded dormers on the gently sloping A-roof. The first story windows are 9/6 and those on the second story are 6/6. The brick on the house is stuccoed and scored to imitate ashlar blocks. This appears to be part of the original design and is rather unusual. There is a chimney at each end of the house. At the rear of this house is a five bay wide, one room deep, 2-1/2 story frame addition. This appears to be c. 1840-1850 and is falling into ruin. This property is deserted and rapidly decaying. It should be noted as one of the better late Federal houses in the county.  The interior is divided into stair and 2 rooms, the west room contains fragments of the original painted walls <sup>+ ceiling</sup> of a Rococo design.  Condition: falling into ruin		OPEN TO PUBLIC NO
